Starring Siddharth Jadhav and Bharat Jadhav, the film was produced by Tarun Prabodhankar and co-produced by Vaishali Shantaram, Apurva Ashar and Neelesh Desai. It is based on the 2004 Malayalam film, Karunamayude Makan, which itself was based on the 1983 Malayalam novel of the same name written by Malayattoor Ramakrishnan. Principal photography began on 25 February 2019, and the film was released on 8 April 2019. It was the opening film of the 2019 Indian Panorama section of the 19th International Film Festival of India (IFFI). Plot The film is set in rural Maharashtra in 2018, where Ajay Ambekar (Siddharth Jadhav) is employed at a farmhouse run by his parents, both of whom are getting on in years. Ajay's father, Raghuveer (Bharat Jadhav), is an alcoholic, who often makes odd comments to his son. He is also extremely strict, and often beats Ajay with a stick, while his mother, Seetha (Nirupama Pappu), indulges in dirty jibes and riddles to get Ajay to perform various household chores for her. Seetha is incredibly attached to her son, and often tries to force him into their house. Ajay wants to get married and start a life of his own, but his parents do not approve of his marriage. At a bar in the local village, he meets Lalita (Divya Solanki) and her family and they decide to get married. However, Raghuveer turns up at the wedding to stop the couple. The couple are married in a hurried manner without Seetha's knowledge and the wedding ceremony is solemnised with no one in attendance. Ajay's first job is to build a mud house for his father-in-law, Prabhakar (Tarun Korde), as his mother fears that her husband's work will lead to Prabhakar becoming too familiar with her. Prabhakar is a bachelor who spends most of his time smoking, 82157476af
